About “Get Territorial: Idaho at 150”: March 4, 2013 marks the 150th anniversary of the creation of Idaho Territory. “Get Territorial: Idaho at 150” is a grassroots effort among state agencies, communities, and individuals across the state to educate Idahoans about their heritage and commemorate the 150 milestone. The Idaho Territorial Sesquicentennial will shape our state by helping people of all ages explore and appreciate the territorial roots of contemporary Idaho and create lasting legacies for the future. For more information, visit www.history.idaho.gov, a portal to events, programs, and resources for the commemoration of the anniversary of territorial creation.
