IDAHO ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY RECORDS

Number 778

Revised 1996

The Idaho State Archaeologist, a member of the Idaho State Historic Preservation Office staff, is responsible for maintaining the Idaho Archaeological Survey records. Part of this responsibility has been shared, and survey numbers for north and north-central Idaho counties will be assigned by the Northern Idaho Regional Archaeological Center at the University of Idaho; survey numbers for southwestern Idaho will be assigned by the State Archaeologist, Southwestern Idaho Regional Archaeological Center at the Idaho Historical Society; and survey numbers for southeastern Idaho will be supplied by the Southeastern Idaho Regional Archaeological Center at the Idaho Museum of Natural History, Pocatello. The counties included in each of these areas and the people to contact are listed below. A complete set of site survey forms for all counties will be maintained in the office of the State Archaeologist.
