IDAHO TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT IMPRINTS

Number 1129

January 1996

In 1940, as a part of the American Imprints Inventory of the WPA Historical Records Survey Programs, A Check List of Idaho Imprints, 1839-1890, was published. Prepared by Douglas McMurtrie, it is an inventory of all known imprints for that period and indicates locations of those imprints. McMurtrie's check list is a good beginning step to identify Idaho's territorial imprints, but the user should be aware that it does contain a few mistakes and many omissions.

The Library & Archives of the Society have most of the imprints listed in McMurtrie's 1940 publication. Because of format, condition, and other factors, items are located throughout the collection of the Library & Archives.

Categories of imprints that have been assembled together are those printed for the territorial government of Idaho. These include the Session Law and House and Council journals, 1863-1890, as well as the unbound government imprints of that period.

The inventory below lists those unbound items. Most items are originals, although several are photocopies of originals held by other institutions throughout the United States. Inventory entries include the territorial government agency responsible for the publication, year published, brief description of publication, the elected or appointed official that prepared the publication, and entry number in McMurtrie's check list that provides a full bibliographic citation.
