

IDAHO STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

IDAHO ARCHAEOLOGY AND HISTORIC PRESERVATION MONTH // MAY 2020

A WOMAN'S PLACE

Women have a profound and dynamic impact on the places where they live, work, and recreate. In Idaho, many historic sites and structures embody the empowering stories of women who have shaped the narrative of our state. The seven historic places pictured here reflect only a fraction of the innumerable ways women have influenced who we are as Idahoans, and represent limitless opportunities not yet realized.

LEARN MORE AT HISTORY.IDAHO.GOV

LEADING A NATION
US-95 AT BONNERS FERRY

EDUCATING SCHOLARS
UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

APPLYING THE LAW
ADA COUNTY COURTHOUSE

PROVING A THEORY
IDAHO NATIONAL LABORATORY

UNCOVERING HISTORY
GIVENS HOT SPRINGS

WINNING THE GOLD
SUN VALLEY

SHAPING A COMMUNITY
POCATELLO PUBLIC LIBRARY

SPONSORED BY: Bureau of Land Management | Caribou-Targhee National Forest

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT FROM: Boise National Forest | Idaho Archaeological Society | Idaho Heritage Trust | Idaho Power Company | Idaho Transportation Department | Preservation Idaho

IMAGES PROVIDED BY: Bonner County Museum (Valley Studio 2552); University of Idaho Library Special Collections (PG 1_148-04); Dr. Thomas Green (7-1980); Idaho State Archives (1998, 2171, P2005-23-019, P2005-23-374); Idaho National Laboratory (EBR-1)