

Draft Agenda

Governor's Lewis and Clark Trail Committee Meeting

Cottonwood, Idaho (St. Gertrudes Monastery)

October 24, 25 2019

Wednesday, October 23 Travel to Cottonwood.

Because the Spirit Center at the Monastery is fully occupied, our group's lodging will be split between 3 rooms at the Inn, and 4 rooms at the Super 8 motel in Grangeville. A lodging spreadsheet was sent separately.

Dinner is on you own. For those staying at the Inn-if you arrive early, dinner at the Monastery with the Nuns will be available at 5:30 pm if you wish.

Thursday, October 24 Meeting

Continental breakfast is available at both the Inn and the Super 8. Anyone who wishes can join the Nuns for breakfast- it is served at 7:30 am. (Please note that the Nuns have a rule of silence at breakfast that we should respect and comply with if we join them).

Field Trip- direct quote below from an email from our tour guide (Keith Petersen):

On Friday October 25, Shelley Kuther, from the Ilo-Vollmer (Craigmont) Historical Society and I (with a guest appearance by Jim Fazio) will be leading a field trip through some beautiful country. We will start at 9:00 at a historical marker just out of Cottonwood (the folks staying in Grangeville and the folks staying at the Monastery will meet up at this site). We'll car caravan. We'll have a box lunch along the way--either at a pretty private picnic spot if weather permits, or indoors at Craigmont if stormy. We'll end the tour in Winchester, with a visit of the Winchester Museum, including the Lewis and Clark exhibit that the Committee helped to fund. Tour will end about 1:00. For those traveling north home, you can leave from Winchester; you will already be part of the way home. For those spending another night in Cottonwood/Grangeville, we can have a stop or two on the way back to Cottonwood if people are interested in seeing more sites

The tour will focus on the War of 1877 and the former towns of Westlake and Morrowtown, with Jim providing information on Ordway's trip to get salmon as we look out upon one of Ordway's campsites

Meeting will be adjourned at the conclusion of the field trip.

Dinner: for those of us remaining in the Cottonwood Area-a trip to Keuterville for dinner is a distinct possibility.
